What is this type of insurance?

Landlord Legal Protection is a legal expenses insurance contract which provides landlords of residential properties with access to legal advice and insurance cover for legal costs and expenses in legal disputes listed below relating to the letting of your property, subject to the terms and conditions of your policy.

What is insured?	What is not insured?
Repossession
Pursuing your legal rights to obtain possession of your property from the tenant.	Claims where the correct notices to quit your property have not been served on the tenant or where you have not complied with statutory legislation relating to the letting of your property.
Rent Recovery
Pursuing the tenant to recover rent owed to you under a tenancy agreement.	Rent which is overdue for less than one calendar month.
Alternative Accommodation & Storage Costs
Where the tenancy agreement has ended and you are seeking possession of your property for you to live in it, the insurer will contribute towards the cost of alternative accommodation for you and the storage of your personal possessions for a maximum of 30 days.	Claims where you do not intend to live in the property or if other suitable accommodation is available to you.
Damage to Your Property
Pursuing your legal rights against the tenant or another party who has directly caused damage to your property and its contents.	Claims where the amount in dispute is less than £500.
Nuisance and Trespass

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- Your let property must be located within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. Your property must be let under an assured shorthold tenancy or an assured tenancy as defined by the Housing Act 1988 (updated and amended by the Housing Act 1996) or the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 or let as a private residential tenancy (as defined in the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016); or let under the Private Tenancies (Northern Ireland) Order 2006; or let to a limited company or business partnership for residential use by their employees; or where you permanently live at your property and have let a room(s) to a tenant.
- There is no cover under this policy for any circumstances which you were aware of before the start date of this insurance.
- There is no cover under this policy for any costs incurred before we have accepted your claim or which we have not authorised in advance.
- There is no cover for disputes with the tenant which arise within the first 90 days of the start date of this insurance if the tenancy commenced before this insurance started (unless continuous equivalent cover was in place immediately before this insurance commenced).
- This is a claims made policy which means that claims must be notified to us during your period of insurance or within 14 days after the expiry date if this insurance is not renewed. Claims relating to unpaid rent must be reported to us within 60 days of the rent becoming due and payable (and within the timescales specified above).
- There must always be more than a 50% chance that any claim under this insurance will have a successful outcome. We will always select a legal representative of our choice to deal with your claim. If legal proceedings are issued or if there is a conflict of interest, you may choose your own legal representative. Your chosen legal representative must agree to our standard terms of appointment and the most the insurer will pay is no more than the amount that would have been paid to our own choice of legal representative.

What are my obligations?

You must:

- keep to the terms and conditions of the policy;
- take reasonable precautions to minimise the risk of a claim occurring and not to incur any unnecessary costs;
- supply us and your legal representative with honest and accurate information when asked to do so;
- co-operate fully with us and with your legal representative;
- notify us of any claim as soon as reasonably possible, which must be during the period of insurance and within 60 days of the rent becoming due and payable if the dispute relates to unpaid rent.
